

Personal Standard of Service

The Wedding Smith

Your fee includes: The following standard of service for a quality wedding;

1. I will provide to you with ceremony ideas, vows and readings.
2. I give you complete choice of ceremony, where possible, using information provided to me through the personal ceremony questionnaire provided.
3. At a relaxed interview with me, you discuss all your wedding requirements. After this initial meeting, you are entitled to unlimited consultation by phone, in person, or email.
4. You are entitled to an on-site-rehearsal at a mutually convenient time. (Or a rehearsal at an agreed place if on-site is not practical.)
5. Your Wedding Certificate.
6. Ample Time. A guarantee that no other wedding will be booked so close that I arrive late or rush out in an unseemly manner. I will always arrive at least 30 minutes before the bride is due to make her entrance at the planned starting time.
7. I give my personal guarantee that I will be very familiar with the ceremony beforehand, be precise with details and that I will read my part in a sincere, authentic and effective manner - keeping the focus on you.
8. As far as possible I will dress to fit in with your wedding.
9. My commitment to the Celebrant Code of Practice assures you that your ceremony will be conducted according to this code and with full attention to the ceremonial and legal requirements of this day.
10. If an unforeseen event occurs that prevents me from attending your ceremony, a replacement celebrant of equal professional standing and experience will be provided to ensure your day continues as planned.
11. Your fee also includes the provision of a portable PA system.
12. Up to 4 face to face consultations (including rehearsal).
13. Unlimited phone and email consultations.
14. Preparation of ceremony fully tailored to your requirements.
15. Performance of your ceremony at the agreed time and location.
16. Lodgement of all necessary legal documents.
17. Souvenir copy of your ceremony in print.
